June offered zany weather and Allan Hayden, billed as a professional funny guy. The NWRF sponsored a lecture by ALLAN at an auditorium in Edmonds, where Allan entertained with everything from plate-spinning, to his stock; rings, ropes and cards.

July club meeting, offered a chance to beat the Librarian's Challenge with an answer to a trivia question. This time there were several winners to the challenge: "What was the first book printed in English that explained magic tricks?" Answer: "Discovery of Witchcraft". The theme of July's meeting was "Magic with Mon(k)ey(s)". One of the performers, Rich Waters was awarded free admission to the Day of Magic, for "Paco the monkey" doing a card prediction. Other great effects and tales were also performed by members.

Lectures:

DR. BARRY RICHARDSON - September 10th Saturday afternoon 2:00 pm at the Edmonds P.U.D. auditorium. Only $15. for NWRF members, and $20. for all others. Known for cards, mentalism and more.
