September Club Meeting: The club meeting was lead off with a couple of brief reports; our treasury is still in solvent, Smoke & Mirrors will be headed by Telemus in February, Chris Capehart gave a good lecture last month. The Librarian's challenge was: When Dave Hennig performed his "Things that go Bump in the Night"...What mishap occurred, that became part of the illusion? Don Bloomer Answered: "Leg Vanish", winning himself free admission to the next lecture. We viewed a 1977 video of a Tommy Wonder early TV appearance outside of Holland. Performing this evening were; Jennifer Meyers (& friend) Bryce Chambers, Dave Callahan, Don Bloomer.

The NW Ring of Smoke, the young magicians group, had a nice turn out. On hand to help were Aaron Wheeler, Telemus, The Great Poobah, myself Bruce Meyers, Zinger and Ron Young. Poobah taught how to make corks penetrate through each other and gave everyone their own set. Ron Young taught the funniest act he calls "Goldilocks & The Three Bears." He floored everyone in the room. I taught an effect I came up with, of two aces changing places. Louis Gonzales (10 y/o) came up with an idea for the trick that was so good I'm thinking of putting this card routine into my close up act.

On that following Sunday, Sep. 24th, some of the young performers who will be in the stage show for The Day O' Magic, got together & we worked on their material. It was a lot of fun and we got a lot done. We're looking forward to the big 5:00 show at the Day O' Magic which will also be attended by the family who donated the Sub Trunk, the Palaquin Illusion & the Flying Carpet to our ROS magicians. They will be our special guests. See you there!

Lectures: Dave Matek - coming here this Nov.

Labor Day Picnic at the lake home of Bruce & Jennifer Meyers was a terrific way to wrap up the summer. The BBQ(burgers & hot dogs), fondue(white & dark chocolate), comradeship(about 50), swimming (impromptu by Pete), and the magic of the afternoon. Thanks to the efforts of the Meyers and all who helped and NWRP club funds.
